FIRE BUG BUSY ON SOMERSET PIKE

HOUSE ON M. S. BAUGHMAN'S PLACE ROBBED AND THEN BURNED.

Fire, undoubtedly of incendiary origin, destroyed a tenant house on M. S. Baughman's farm Tuesday night together with all the contents, the property of Olive ... who had lived there with his family for some time.

The blaze was discovered by Mr. Baughman about seven o'clock. When the house, which was on the Somerset pike, just north of M. S. Baughman's home place, was reached, it was completely enveloped in flame and it was seen at once that there was no chance to save it. Mr. Baughman immediately telephoned to Wilmor for the bloodhounds belonging to Capt. V. G. Mullikin, and jumping into his automobile he sped to Danville where he met the fast Cincinnati Southern train, and within four hours after the blaze Capt. Mullikin and his dogs were on the trail. The dogs seemed to take the scent at once, and traced straight to another house in the section, occupied by a family named Davis, who had formerly lived at Rowland. Great difficulty was had in awakening the male members of the family, but when finally aroused, they denied all knowledge of the occurrence. A search warrant was gotten out Thursday however, and search of their premises made by Dink Farmer, but nothing could be found. Mr. Mitchell and family were away at the time of the burning, he being at the home of his brother, Charles Mitchell, on the place of J. W. Baughman. No one had been inside of his house for almost two weeks, and there is no way in which it could have caught fire had not a match been applied. It is believed that the house was first robbed, and then burned in an effort to conceal the crime. A view of the building after it had burned down, shows traces of several jars of "ketchup" which was more or less consumed. A large quantity of fine preserves was alongside this but there is no trace of them and it is believed that they were among the plunder taken from the building before the fire was kindled under it.

Several suspicious tracks were found about the house, and this with other evidence will probably be laid before the grandjury when it convenes next month.

The loss to Mr. Baughman in the house will amount to but a few hundred dollars. Mr. Mitchell, however, lost his all and a subscription paper was passed about town to raise a fund to assist him through the winter.

Football Victim

FIRST ONE OF SEASON HERE IS BURNSIDE HUFFMAN

The first football victim in this vicinity is Burnsides Huffman, the 14-year-old son of Mr. A. G. Huffman. The youngster broke his right leg just above the ankle while playing football at the public school last week. His physician set the member and he is resting as comfortably as it is possible for a lad of that age to, lying in bed. His limb was carefully set and he will be out again within the course of a few weeks but will hardly play football again this season.

SHOULD BE IN CONFEDERATE HOME

PATHETIC STORY OF ONE OF MORGAN'S HEROES NOW IN POORHOUSE

Crab Orchard, Ky., Oct. 27.

A few days ago as I walked down the streets of Crab Orchard I met an old friend his form was bowed and his head was lowered by the frosts of many winters, age had dimmed the fire of his eyes and on his brow the foot of melancholy had left his track. As I grasped his hand I said my old friend why don't you go to the confederate soldiers' home? Said he If a ticket there only cost ten cents I could not buy one.

A mist gathered in my eyes as I thought who my old friend is and who he has been. I remembered what my father and mother had told me of his family whom they had known in ante-bellum days. His father was a Garrard county man, who lived on a Blue Grass farm of a thousand acres in a palatial residence facing the turnpike. At the beginning of the war he owned over 600 negroes. He was one of the richest men that ever lived in old Garrard, but misfortune came and his property was swept away like mist before the morning sun.

When the Civil War broke out, my young hero kissed his sweetheart and mounted a thoroughbred and followed the God loved Morgan into Dixie land. F. L. Jones is furnishing news for the Danville Advocate from this section.

A few of our farmers have begun shipping tobacco and the quality is fine.

Judge Lincoln Wells was here Sunday. Miss Willie Fogle and W. E. McWhorter will attend the Sunday School Union at Valley Oak Sunday. Mrs. Hubert Jones and baby, of Dunnville are with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones on the Liberty pike.

Mrs. Ransom Douglass and Mrs. W. Wall arrested charging her with breach of peace and the case will come up here Wednesday.

I often think of the picture painted by Georgia's gifted son, Henry W. Grady, "when in April 1865 underneath an apple tree at Appomattox Grant took Lee's sword in surrender, there on every ragged gray cap the Lord God Almighty laid the sword of his unperishable knighthood." Think of this ragged gray band who for four years had held Grant's teeming legions at bay—they were the salt of the earth.

I often think of the picture painted by Georgia's gifted son, Henry W. Grady, "when in April 1865 underneath an apple tree at Appomattox Grant took Lee's sword in surrender, there on every ragged gray cap the Lord God Almighty laid the sword of his unperishable knighthood." Think of this ragged gray band who for four years had held Grant's teeming legions at bay—they were the salt of the earth.

As the body was borne from the residence Judge J. W. Alcorn walked in front, by his side a gray haired chieftain; it is enough to say his name was Breckinridge. There fell in behind his casket his old comrades in arms, they were the greatest body of men that ever paid their last respects to a brother soldier.

But returning to my subject; who is my old hero who once wore the gray with a heart of gold? He is John Salter. One thing I must state that I wish could be left out that is he is now an inmate of the Lincoln county poor house.

Just one word to the soldiers who followed Morgan. Can't John Salter get a ticket to the Confederate Soldiers' home?

W. B. HANSFORD.

The Interior Journal will be glad to receive and give credit in the paper to any who may wish to contribute to a fund to defray the expenses of this veteran to the Confederate Home.

She gave her heart to Jesus a few months ago and united with the Baptist church. During her illness she gave sufficient testimony of her faith and trust in Jesus and willingness to go and be with him who had prepared her soul for the mansion above. We express the comforting thought that her spirit has now taken possession of her "inheritance among all these which are sanctified" and beckoning her loved ones to follow. The funeral sermon was preached by Bro. Kimble at her residence, after which the remains were taken to Carversville for interment.

As the body was borne from the residence Judge J. W. Alcorn walked in front, by his side a gray haired chieftain; it is enough to say his name was Breckinridge. CAN'T BEAT HELM.

One of the best speeches of the campaign that we have seen is by Congressman Harvey Helm of the Eighth district, says Col. W. P. Walton in the Lexington Herald. He presents facts and figures so gracefully that the wayfaring man, though a fool must be attracted by him. In addition to his arguments, he makes a good deal of sport of Cannon and his satellites and says that Camp Clark having promised to let him preside occasionally when he is elected speaker, the greatest delight of his congressional life will be when so presiding to say, when Mr. Cannon arises and addresses the chair, "The gentleman from Illinois is not in order." That may be fun for Helm but it will be wormwood and gall for the Czar who, shorn of power, will probably pine away and die.

By the way Mr. Helm has given one nominee of the Republican party "cold feet" and the other having been nominated by the committee out of form, the prospect is that his 1600 and over majority of two years ago may be increased to 2500.

Success Magazine gives the demerits 168 Congressional districts sure, the Republicans 160, with a total of probably a tie, with fifteen doubtful districts. In Kentucky it places both the Ninth and Tenth districts close, with probability of democrats being elected in both. The magazine's conclusions are that the next House of Representatives will be almost exactly in even balance. The probabilities are slightly in favor of a Republican majority of two or three, but it is impossible to predict with certainty at this writing, which of the two parties will organize the House.

The Eighth district may decide the matter so as to be sure to go to the polls and vote for Helm.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fear, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Prest., Buffalo, N. Y.

CAPT. BOGARDUS AGAIN HITS THE BULL'S EYE

This world famous rifle shot holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln III. Recently interviewed he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well-known kidney medicines, all of which gave no relief until I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley's Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would feel dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Shugars and Tanner.

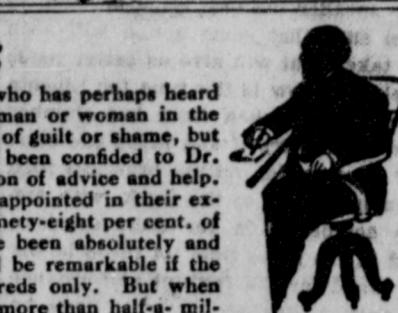

Constipation Cure Free

With the first signs of constipation you resort to the home methods of relief, such as hot or cold water on arising, lots of stewed fruit with your breakfast, etc., but what do you do when these fail?

The majority then start on salts and purgative waters, then change to cathartics, pills, etc. If you have gone through these various stages you know they were all temporary and permanent results go. Now you should try again once again, but try something practical and sensible, a remedy made and intended for the purpose you are trying to accomplish. Such a remedy, as thousands can testify, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint, which is guaranteed to be permanent in its results. Its ingredients are such that by a brief use of it the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to again do their work normally, so that in the end you can do away with medicines of all kinds. That is why we say this Mr. G. Y. Dodson of Springfield, Va., is a glad patient, and so will Mrs. S. M. Hampton of Potowmuck, O.

To those who are still skeptical there is a way to prove these assertions without a penny of expense: Simply send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and obtain a free sample bottle. After using it, if you are then convinced it is the remedy you need, buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of your druggist and continue to use it for a brief time until cured. The directions are simple and the dose is small. It is pleasant to the taste, does not gripe and is promptly effective, and these statements are guaranteed or money will be refunded.

This remedy is over a quarter of a century old and is personally taken by more druggists than any other similar remedy on the American market. Because of its effectiveness, purity and pleasant taste, it is the ideal laxative remedy for children, women and old folks generally. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Enclose a small case and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. But for many years I have promoted its local use and natural remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.
Science has given Catarrh to the world as a disease,
and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses drop to a teaspooonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Addressee: CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Rev. A. N. Johnson an evangelist, of Wilmore, Ky., while holding a meeting in Texas several weeks ago,
was informed of the death, near Lodwick, Texas, of George Young, commonly known as "Wash" Young, a lumber man formerly living near Paducah. Mr. Johnson is a son of the late "Free Silver" Johnson, of this county. He recently preached at the Methodist church here.

It appears that Mr. Young was killed by being crushed by a saw log in a lumber mill. Mr. Johnson was informed that he left several thousand dollars which his relatives in this State should inherit. The money will be paid to the heirs of Mr. Young when they prove their identity and establish their claims to their share of the estate.

This is quoted from a letter of Ed-used Fley's Honey and Tar for the not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I con-
